

Nominating Committee Report
Alyson Outenreath, Nominating Committee Chair
Tax Section
State Bar of Texas

INTRODUCTION

The Nominating Committee met by teleconference on March 16, 2017, at which time the Committee considered the persons recommended and considered by the current Officers of the Tax Section to be incoming Council Members and Officers of the Tax Section for the 2017-2018 fiscal year. In considering the nominees and other active members of the Tax Section, the Nominating Committee took into account their professional experience, qualifications and expertise, participation and diligence in the Committees and activities of the Tax Section, obligations to other organizations, geographic location, law firm size, diversity, and other factors considered to be important.
